Part III REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach, disclose, or suggest the claimed limitations of (in combination with all other limitations in the claim), searching means for performing a search for at least one desired image forming apparatus satisfying the primary print function selection instruction from among the plurality of image forming apparatuses; outputting means for outputting, as a result of the search, one of a first list indicating image forming apparatuses satisfying all requirements of the primary print function selection instruction when such image forming apparatuses exist and a second list indicating image forming apparatuses satisfying a part of the requirements of the primary print function selection instruction when such image forming apparatuses exist and no image forming apparatus satisfying all requirements of said primary print function selection instruction exists; receiving means for receiving a printer selection instruction sent from the client computer for selecting one desired image forming apparatus from the first or second list; transmitting means for transmitting, to the client computer, information items associated with image forming inherent in said one desired image forming apparatus selected, admitting means for admitting a secondary print function selection instruction sent from said client computer corresponding to said information items associated with image forming inherent in said one desired image forming apparatus selected; and commanding means for commanding said one selected desired image forming apparatus with a print execution instruction including said secondary print function selection instruction as claimed in claim 46.
